Around the World in 80+ Prints
Take a meandering journey through five centuries and uncountable cultures by exploring the Chazen’s deep and rich collection of prints. Curator Drew Stevens, who draws from his 30 years of working with the collection, will present a mix of historical and technical information on prints from the Museum’s collection. Close inspection of selected prints will give class participants a better understanding of printing methods and their place in history.

Six sessions: Tuesdays and Thursdays, 2–4:00 p.m.: June 5, 7, 12, 14, 19, 21
Instructor: Drew Stevens, Distinguished Curator of Prints, Drawings, and Photographs
Limit: 16. Fee: $135 | Location: Object Study Room
Registration deadline: May 31, 2018

NOTE: Maria Saffiotti Dale will offer Curatorial Connections in Fall 2018 in conjunction with the exhibition: Life, Love, & Marriage in Renaissance Italy
How to register
Pre-registration is required. Please fill out the attached form below and send with a check. Registrations will be taken on a first come, first served basis. Registration is complete upon receipt of the registration form and the fee. A written confirmation will be sent to each participant by email.

There will be no refunds unless the Chazen cancels the class. Due to the small class size, the fee cannot be prorated. (Anyone who cannot attend all sessions may send a substitute for any missed sessions.) For questions about the class content or registration call (608) 263-4421.
